

"Forest for the Trees" Workshop with Sue Spargo

Saturday, June 5 through Friday, June 10, 2022

Students should bring:

Note: the materials listed below can be purchased through Sue Spargo's website (suespargo.com) and other fiber-related craft stores. Please be sure to order ahead of time to allow delivery before the class begins.

For homework choose the tree you would like to do and start your journal adding pictures and drawings of the trunk, leaves, fruit, animal and insects that inhabit your tree.

- Freezer paper, pencil and scissors for use with paper
- #10 & #19 Short Darner needles for beading and cotton appliqué
- #24 Chenille needle for wool appliqué
- #18 Chenille needle for couching
- #3 #1 & #15 Milliners needles for wrapped stitches
- Efinia 60 weight cotton thread for cotton and velvet appliqué
- Ellana 50/50 wool thread for wool appliqué
- Appliqué pins
- Embroidery and Fabric scissors
- Journal & pen for note taking
- Small circle template
- 1" x 6" ruler
- Chalk pencil

Background

- Sky and earth colored wool colors
- Small pieces of sky and earth colored fabrics - cotton prints, silk, linen yarn dyed fabrics for layering the background
- Ribbons to match the color of your background

Appliqué

- Different colors of wool and cotton scraps for tree and animals.
- Assorted small pieces of textural fabrics including hand dyed silk/rayon velvet, silk and linen.
- Presto Sheer for stabilizing velvet.

Embellishments

Bring an assortment of colorful embellishment threads for background and appliqué embellishment such as Eleganza Perle Cotton, Chenille Yarns, Seagrass, Silken Pearl, Dazzle, Razzle, #24 Silk Thread and #11 Seed Beads

Books

‘Creative Stitching Book \(2nd Edition\)’ by Sue Spargo

‘Forest for the Trees Book’ by Sue Spargo

Additional Notes:

Please be sure to dress for the weather for the first session on June 5th. You will be visiting and walking around Bloedel Reserve.

Cancellation requests received 45 days or less before the workshop start date will not be eligible for a refund or credit. Cutoff date to request a refund is April 20th, 2022.

Please click here for information on getting to BARN. This document includes information on lodging, transportation, and restaurants.